"Jennifer and I both look so good for fall! Thank you. Really, I think you are our new best business tool. When we walk into a meeting feeling like a million bucks, it shows. The thing that amazes me about you is that I'm still wearing pieces you bought me years ago. And they still make me feel great."

plaid monkey testimonials

"I have used the services of Plaid Monkey both corporately and personally for over several years. On the corporate side, Robanne has assisted me with a wide variety of items including wardrobe, corporate gifts, and event planning.

At holidays as well as for birthdays and other special occasions, "The Monkey" will provide gift ideas. Then she will acquire the gift; wrap it in a very professional and creative way; and ship it. I get great credit from clients for the wonderful item they received from me and I, of course, never left my desk.

Similarly, Robanne will pick out both business attire and casual wear for me and bring it to my office. At my leisure, I select what I like. She then returns everything else back to whatever store from which it came. I do not go to the store, talk with sales people, or wait in line. Not only do I save time, but I benefit from her great sense of style.

Additionally, Robanne has assisted me with event planning. This includes trips for clients, dinners, "party favors", wine selection, and the like. She will also make all the arrangements for and follow up with service providers such as photographers to ensure the event is properly captured.

On the personal side, I use Plaid Monkey to handle most of my gift items for my entire family regarding Christmas and birthdays. This also, of course, includes anniversaries, Valentine's Day, and other special occasions. One of Robanne's specialties, which I have used on numerous occasions, is her special gift basket for a newborn or baby shower. This has been a real winner with friends.

Not only does the services of Plaid Monkey ensures that I provide appropriate gifts on a corporate level, they also keep me out of trouble on a personal level. Additionally, of course, I save a tremendous amount of time and avoid a great deal of stress."

"I have used the services of Plaid Monkey on numerous occasions for the purpose of researching, purchasing, packaging and shipping gifts for both personal and professional events. I have always been very pleased with the quality of the gifts and the professionalism of Robanne Schulman, founder of Plaid Monkey. Ms. Schulman puts a lot of thought and effort into the purchase and execution of every gift. She has a wide variety of resources available to her when selecting the gift and avoids the expected, run-of-the-mill items. I plan to continue to depend on Plaid Monkey for my gift-giving occasions and would highly recommend their services to anyone."

L. Dickey, President & CEO, Media Company

"Robanne certainly enjoys her work and it shows in the enthusiasm she exudes in finding the "perfect gift". She saves me time by taking over the shopping for me and always finds the right gift for any occasion. For my money, she is "The best in Atlanta"."

J. Richardson, Vice President, Investment firm

"Robanne Schulman is a perfectionist. However, unlike most perfectionists, she managed to get things done very efficiently and still maintain a positive professional personality! Despite Robanne's frenetic pace, she will treat a small client task with the same attention to detail as a major order. Robanne is creative, unafraid of brainstorming and will outsource work to trusted third parties to get the job done right. Regardless of the request, Robanne will work her network to get it done well. When she is finished you will be satisfied with the product and likely will not care about the price! Robanne is a wonderful resource for any results oriented business person!"
